Alternation of remedies

Organon § 40, note.
...’ From careful experiments and cures of complex diseases of this kind, I am now firmly convinced that no real amalgamation of the two takes place, but that in such cases the one exists in the organism besides the other only, each in the parts that are adapted for it, and their cure will be completely effected by a judicious alternation of the best mercurial preparation, with the remedies specific for the psora, each given in the most suitable dose and form’...

Alternation of remedies

Based on Organon 6th edition and the Chronic diseases.

Miasms are dynamic disease tendencies
 Basic Miasms are Psora, Sycosis and Syphilis
 Combined miasms are Tuberculosis and the Carcinogenesis

All disease tendencies are of an inflammatory character
 Inflammatory processes lead to hypoxia and subsequently to Cancer (Warburg effect)

Homeopathy and cancer

The homeopathic remedies their origin and indication:

- Plant remedies are primarily indicated for the acute diseases and organ related diseases
- Animal primarily indicated for the acute diseases
- Mineral remedies are indicated as constitutional remedies.
- The Nosodes are indicated for inherited disease tendencies.

Homeopathy and cancer

Uncured diseases in the ancestry can cause chronic disease in the offspring.

The treatment of the former familial disease tendencies are to be taken into consideration and treated.

- Psoric history indicates the prescription of Psorinum
- Syphilitic ancestry indicates the prescription of Syphillinum
- Sycotic ancestry indicates the prescription of Medorrhinum
- Tubercular ancestry indicates one of the Tuberculinums
- Cancerous ancestry indicates the prescription of Carcinosinum

Homeopathy and cancer

The promotion of oxygen intake is of major importance in the treatment of cancer

Hahnemann's intercurrent remedies promote oxidation and or Combustion, to promote the curative reaction to homeopathic remedies and therefore prohibit the development of cancer..

These remedies are:

- Carbo. vegetabilis
- Carbo animalis
- Hepar sulphuris
- Sulphur

Homeopathy and cancer

Organ dis-functioning (§ 279)

The remedies:

Organ remedies are primarily of plant origin.

Organ remedies have a specific affinity with and effect on certain organs (Compton Burnett)

Are prescribed on clinical symptoms that arise from the dis-functioning of an organ are prescribed in mother tincture or low dilutions

Are prescribed for their physical effect

(examples Crataegus Ø, Solidago Ø

Scrophularia nodosa Ø)

Tissue remedies

The tissue remedies are developed by Wilhelm Heinrich Schüssler

Are the an-organic minerals that lie at the basis of life

The vital force makes use of these minerals to make physical life possible

- They enhance the effect of the vital force on the physical level
- The tissue salts find their indication based on the affected tissue
- Are prescribed in low trituration's 3x, 6x, 12x.
- Frequent dosage necessary, twice or more often

The Banerji Protocols

- In the presentation of the Banerji Protocols we find remedies from all the above mentioned sources.
- All different remedy groups have their specific indication and action
- These remedies support the effect of the complementary remedies
- The remedies belonging to the different groups are prescribed in alternation with one another.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

The Banerji Protocols

- The Banerji Protocols are developed over decades
- The Banerji Protocols have proven to be effective in severe physical pathology.
- The Banerji Protocols are prescribed on clinical confirmed physical diseases.
- The Banerji Protocols are frequently prescribed in pilule doses Using Centesimal potencies. Decimal potencies and  $\emptyset$
- Their indication is primarily based on The Organon §279
